

As a subscriber of XM Satellite radio and a person who travels I have benefited greatly from the service that XM Satellite radio provides from traffic to weather reports. The stations are easy to find and my driving is not distracted by fumbling with the radio for a local channel to get the information that I need, I believe this is a major safety issue driving distractions With my XM system everything is entered before I leave home.